

RUSATOM SERVICE
ROSATOM

TRAINING COURSES

on export control and FEA support

Rusatom Service JSC provides comprehensive service offers for the entire life cycle of energy facilities, as well as the ability to select individual products and services

Our products & services

- Personnel training
 - Commissioning and commissioning works
 - Maintenance and repair
 - Equipment and SPTA supply
 - Technical support of operational personnel
- Services for export control and FEA support

Why Rusatom SERVICE JSC ?

- Rosatom State Corporation resource support
- More than 500 highly qualified specialists in their own staff
- More than 350 partner companies in nuclear and other industries
- More than 200 international projects in more than 15 countries

IF YOUR GOAL IS:

- Form a comprehensive understanding of the principles of export control
- Get practical recommendations on the implementation of international export control requirements into national legislation
- Develop the necessary competencies and skills to initiate multi-level EC processes at the level of the state and individual enterprises

Export control as compliance tool for international obligations and foreign economic activity conduct

The duration of training - 32 ac. hours/4 days

The main topics of the program:

- Introduction to export control
- Non-proliferation of weapons of mass destruction (WMD) and the importance of export control
- International treaties and WMD and delivery means non-proliferation regimes
- Levels of export control implementation
- Identification of dual-use goods and technologies
- Checklists of dual-use goods: equipment, materials, technologies and software. The NSG guidelines and the basics of nuclear export control
- Zangger Committee and the NSG. Activity comparison
- Transit and transshipment
- EC system in the Russian Federation. Compliance with the NSG guidelines
- Basics of customs regulation
- Internal export control program (IECP)

IF YOUR GOAL IS:

- Get practical recommendations on controlling the transfer of technologies, software, educational and methodological materials with signs of dual use
- Develop the necessary competencies and skills:
 - to organize a system of measures to comply with the requirements of the legislation on export control in research and educational institutions
 - to organize international events (training, trainings, internships, exhibitions, conferences, etc.) and participate in them in accordance with the principles of the current export control system

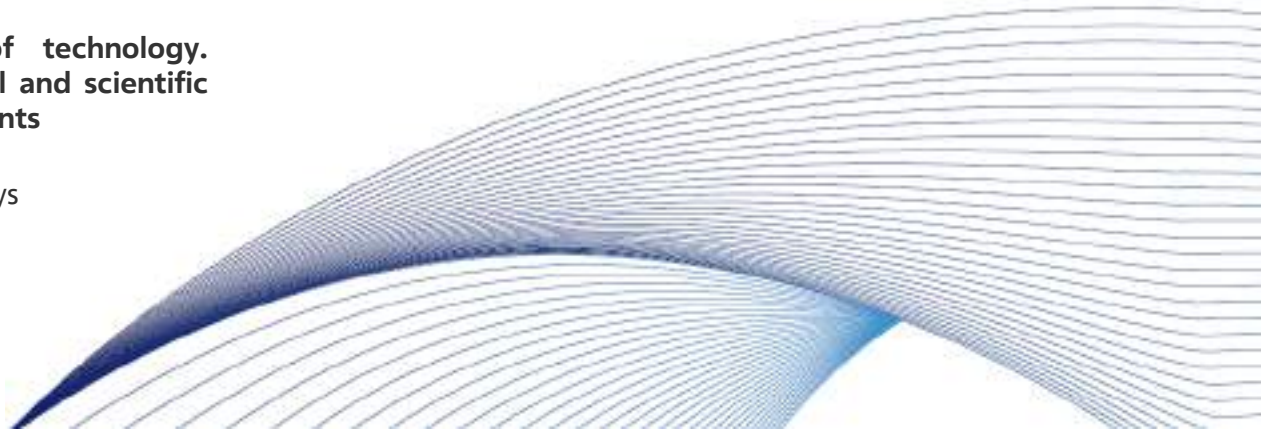

Export control: intangible transfer of technology. Organization of international educational and scientific activities in compliance with EC requirements

The duration of training - 18 ac. hours/2 days

The main topics of the program:

- Intangible transfer of technology and scientific and technical information
- Regulatory framework for intangible transfer of technology and scientific and technical information
- Identification (analysis) of scientific and technical materials prepared for open printing that have characteristics of controlled technologies
- Internal export control program (IECP)
- Internal university export control commission (IUECC)
- Record of the foreign economic transactions with products which are subject to export control
- EC approaches applied to intangible technology transfer. Global practices
- Organization and participation in international exhibitions and conferences held in Russia and abroad

IF YOUR GOAL IS:

- Form a comprehensive understanding of the activities of the institute of certified export control specialists and independent identification centers as elements of an effective export control system at the national level
- Get practical recommendations on the organization at the national level of institutes of independent identification centers and certified export control specialists

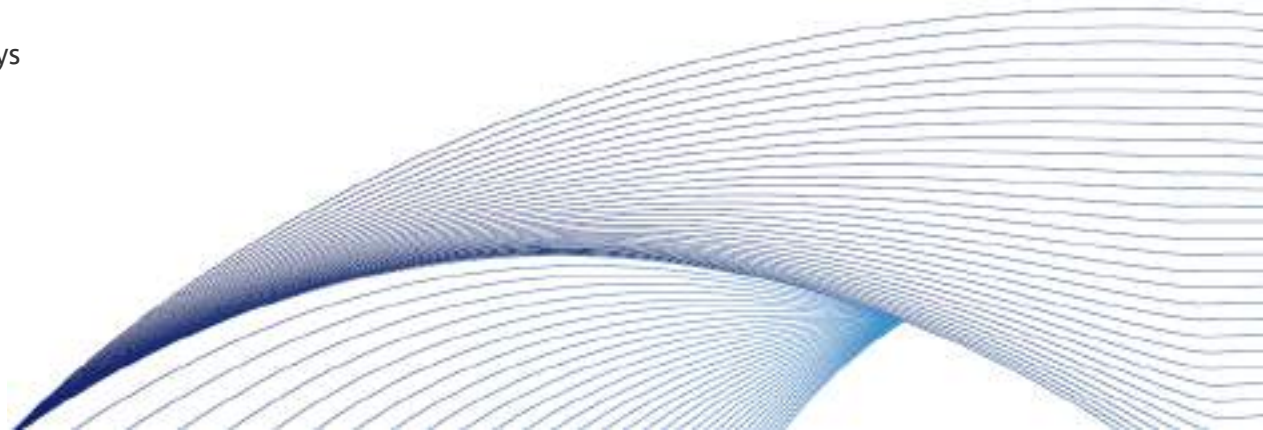

Export control: organization of an institution of certified export control specialists and independent identification centers

The duration of training - 16 ac. hours/2 days

The main topics of the program:

- The institution of certified export control specialists
- Training program of certified export control specialists
- Independent identification centers
- organization of international training and scientific events. Intangible technologies transfer

IF YOUR GOAL IS:

- Form an understanding of the organization of foreign economic activity in accordance with international and national law, as well as business customs
- Provide important practical recommendations on the organization of effective interaction with customs authorities
- Develop knowledge, skills and abilities for an economically sound approach to managing logistics processes at the international level

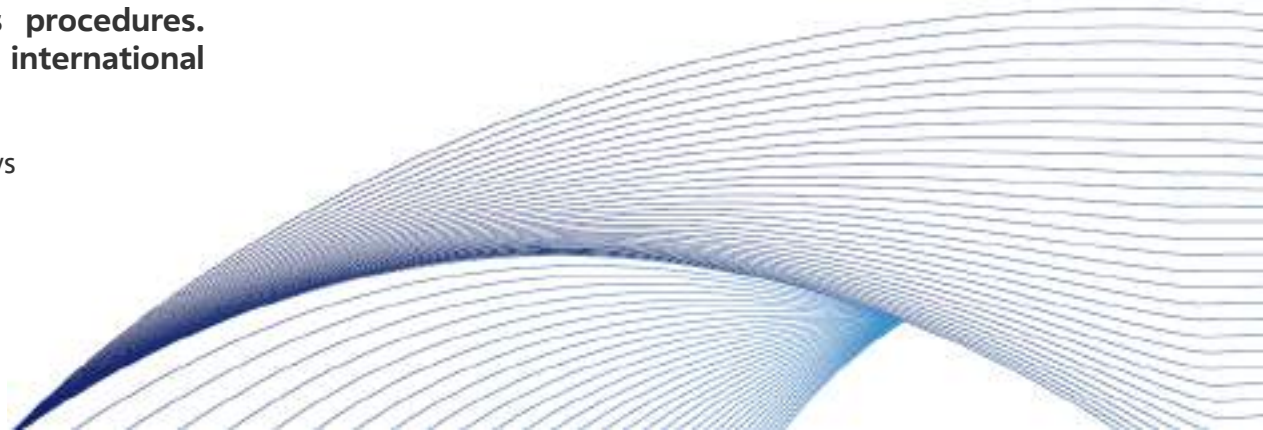

Foreign Economic Activity (FEA): rules of cross-border logistics and major customs procedures. Tools for compliance with international requirements

The duration of training - 32 ac. hours/4 days

The main topics of the program:

- Theoretical concept of the logistics system
- Main tasks of transport logistics
- Legal regulation of international freight transportation
- Shipping and forwarding activities
- Foreign economic activity: conditions of goods transfer seller-carrier-buyer
- Customs clearance

RUSATOM SERVICE
ROSATOM

Any other questions?

Contact us!

Ms. Maria Roskoshnaya

Head of Department of Global Trade
Compliance and Digital Learning

Tel.: +7 (495) 995 76 80, ext. 6144

Mob.: +7 (985) 972 00 16

E-mail: MSRoskoshnaya@rusatomservice.ru

www.rusatomservice.ru